We come here, humbly, as one earthly family to worship our Creator: the giver of form,
the maker of space.

Amen.

Confession & Forgiveness

Rev. Patricia Wolf Hughes

Blessed be the holy Trinity, + One God, who calls forth Creation, evokes praise from Creation, and stirs life in Creation.

Amen.

Let us confess our sin in the presence of God, Creation, and one another.

Silence is kept for reflection.

God of righteousness and justice,

You have made the Earth and all that is in it, but we have failed to honor your good work. We do not recognize your presence among us, and our hardened hearts do not hear Creation's cry. We have made your good land a desolation, and we dishonor your image in our neighbors. Forgive us, in your steadfast love, O God, for trampling your vineyards and polluting your sky. On your holy mountain, call us again to be stewards of your Earth and to join all Creation in songs of praise. Amen.

Rejoice, for the Incarnate Word has come to you. Laying aside all heavenly glory, the Servant of all is obedient unto death to make of you and all the Earth a new Creation. Rejoice, for Christ, from whom nothing can separate you, + forgives you all your sins. Rejoice, for the One whose name is majestic in all the Earth raises you up to newness of life.

Amen.

Prayer of the Day

Rev. Dr. Niveen Sarras

Sovereign of the universe, your first covenant of mercy was with every living creature. When your beloved Son came among us, the waters of the river welcomed him, the heavens opened to greet his arrival, the animals of the wilderness drew near as his companions. With all the world's people, may we who are washed into new life through baptism seek the way of your new creation, the way of justice and care, mercy and peace; through Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord. Amen.

WORD

First Reading: Acts 4:5-12 (NRSV)

Rev. Kelsey Brown

The next day their rulers, elders, and scribes assembled in Jerusalem, with Annas the high priest, Caiaphas, John, and Alexander, and all who were of the high-priestly family. When they had made the prisoners stand in their midst, they inquired, “By what power or by what name did you do this?” Then Peter, filled with the Holy Spirit, said to them, “Rulers of the people and elders, if we are questioned today because of a good deed done to someone who was sick and are asked how this man has been healed, let it be known to all of you, and to all the people of Israel, that this man is standing before you in good health by the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, whom you crucified, whom God raised from the dead. This Jesus is ‘the stone that was rejected by you, the builders; it has become the cornerstone.’

There is salvation in no one else, for there is no other name under heaven given among mortals by which we must be saved.”

Psalm 23 (Inclusive Bible)

Rev. Christyn Koschmann

YHWH, you are my shepherd -
I want nothing more.
You let me lie down in green meadows;
You lead me beside restful waters:
You refresh my soul.
You guide me to lush pastures
For the sake of your Name.
Even if I'm surrounded by shadows of Death,
I fear no danger, for you are with me.
Your rod and your staff -
They give me courage.
You spread a table for me
In the presence of my enemies,
And you anoint my head with oil -
My cup overflows!
Only goodness and love will follow me
All the days of my life,
And I will dwell in your house, YHWH,
For days without end.

Second Reading: 1 John 3:16-24 (NRSV)

Rev. Cindy Jacobson

We know love by this, that he laid down his life for us—and we ought to lay down our lives for one another. How does God’s love abide in anyone who has the world’s goods and sees a brother or sister in need and yet refuses help?

Little children, let us love, not in word or speech, but in truth and action. And by this we will know that we are from the truth and will reassure our hearts before him whenever our hearts condemn us; for God is greater than our hearts, and he knows everything. Beloved, if our hearts do not condemn us, we have boldness before

God; and we receive from him whatever we ask, because we obey his commandments and do what pleases him.

And this is his commandment, that we should believe in the name of his Son Jesus Christ and love one another, just as he has commanded us. All who obey his commandments abide in him, and he abides in them. And by this we know that he abides in us, by the Spirit that he has given us.

Gospel: John 10:11-18 (NRSV)

Deacon Sarah Bowers

“I am the good shepherd. The good shepherd lays down his life for the sheep. The hired hand, who is not the shepherd and does not own the sheep, sees the wolf coming and leaves the sheep and runs away—and the wolf snatches them and scatters them. The hired hand runs away because a hired hand does not care for the sheep. I am the good shepherd. I know my own and my own know me, just as the Father knows me and I know the Father. And I lay down my life for the sheep. I have other sheep that do not belong to this fold. I must bring them also, and they will listen to my voice. So there will be one flock, one shepherd. For this reason the Father loves me, because I lay down my life in order to take it up again. No one takes it from me, but I lay it down of my own accord. I have power to lay it down, and I have power to take it up again. I have received this command from my Father.”

Statement of Faith

Rev. Ben Sheets
Keith Keel
Lynette Todd

We believe in God who creates all things to live in harmony –
Heaven and Earth, Sea and Sky,
Sun and Moon, Fish and Birds,
Mountains and Valleys, Forests and Deserts,
All animals great and small, all human beings –
and cares for all creation as our perfect, loving parent.

We believe in Jesus Christ, Son of the Living God,
Who came to reveal the depth of God's love for all creation, and teach us to live under God's reign of justice, mercy, and compassion.
Who suffered death on the cross to save creation from oppression, violence, and hatred,
and free us from brokenness, sin, and self-conceit.
Who raises us with him into new life to experience joy, peace, and unity with God and all creation.

We believe in the Holy Spirit,
Who calls, equips, empowers, and helps us to reject hatred, oppression, and violence against anyone, and to extend justice and mercy, love and compassion to all created things – Earth, Creatures, and Humans – regardless of how similar or different we are from one another.

Amen.

Offering Prayer

Rev. Sarah Locke

Loving Creator,
you brought us forth from the very earth itself. We share with others what you have entrusted to us. Bless these offerings, and compel us to use them not only to serve our human neighbors, but also to serve our sister sky, our brother mountain, our mother earth, and all our family in Creation. We pray this in the name of the Word that dwells among us. Amen.

Intercessory Prayers

Revs. Chelsea & Mandy Achterberg

O God, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen:
Your great love has placed us in your creation, and you commanded us to care for it.
Your works declare glory and strength, and you call us to praise and reverence.
Where we have degraded or destroyed earth's bounty, forgive us.
Where we have taken beauty and majesty for granted, have mercy upon us.
Where we have become estranged from the creatures with whom we share this planet, grant us your peace.
Creator God,
hear our prayer.

As we join together in celebration of the Earth, we know that there are many things that thwart our efforts and our responsibilities to your creation. The issues of the environment and conservation are often associated with differing political views. For the openness to learn about environmental issues and concerns, we pray:
Creator God,
hear our prayer.

In such a great and complex world, we often feel so small and helpless, as if what we do has no impact on the rest of your creation. Yet we know that because we are created in your image, we are connected with the entirety of creation, just as you are. For an awareness of how our own lifestyles can be modified to help protect the environment, we pray:
Creator God,
hear our prayer.

In an environmental catastrophe, the people who suffer first and greatest are often the poorest of the poor. Yet we rarely hear their voices, silenced as they are by the realities of global life. For those who live in poverty and suffer the devastating effects of flooding, drought, and other environmental issues, we pray:
Creator God,
hear our prayer.

In recent days, even the ground under our feet has begun to tremble, reminding us that we live together in a fragile community of life. For our own community, our city and state, we pray:
Creator God,
hear our prayer.

As members of this creation, we live and die according to the cycle of life that is common in all the world. For those in our midst who suffer from sickness and death, we pray:

Creator God,
hear our prayer.

God of the sun and the moon of the mountains, deserts and plains;
God of the mighty oceans, of rivers, lakes and streams;
God of all creatures that live in the seas and fly in the air;
God of every living thing that grows and moves on this sacred Earth,
We are formed by Christ into your people,
called to bring the world into your marvelous light.

As the Body of Christ, we are messengers of ecological vocation.
We are entrusted with caring for this Earth which you have created.
Help us to love and respect it, to repair what we have damaged, to care for what you have made good and holy.

Give us the wisdom and the passion to change our mind, our hearts, and our ways.
Let us be the change we pray for, bringing about ecological conversion which grows and spreads to every corner of the Earth, for our sake now and for every generation which is to come.

Amen.

Lord's Prayer

Deacon Darcy Mittlestaedt

Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name, your kingdom come,
your will be done, on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins
as we forgive those who sin against us.
Save us from the time of trial and deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours,
now and forever. Amen.

Benediction

PRE-READER

Easter 4

- Today is the 4th Sunday in Easter.
- In the Northern Hemisphere, Easter occurs during the spring.
- Spring is a season of new life.

Baa! Baa! So many shepherds in this picture! Can you find the Good Shepherd? Circle him.

“Just like a good shepherd cares for each and every sheep in the flock, I care for each and every one of you.”

Jesus knows our names, cares for us, and looks for us when we're lost. Jesus is always with us.

Search the hidden valley for 23 hidden sheep. Circle them! What do you think their names might be?

Jesus knows the name of everyone in worship with you today! Draw your worship space in the space below. Where are you in the church? Who is sitting near you?

As you leave worship today, learn the names of those sitting close to you.

NAME _____

MY WORSHIP FRIENDS

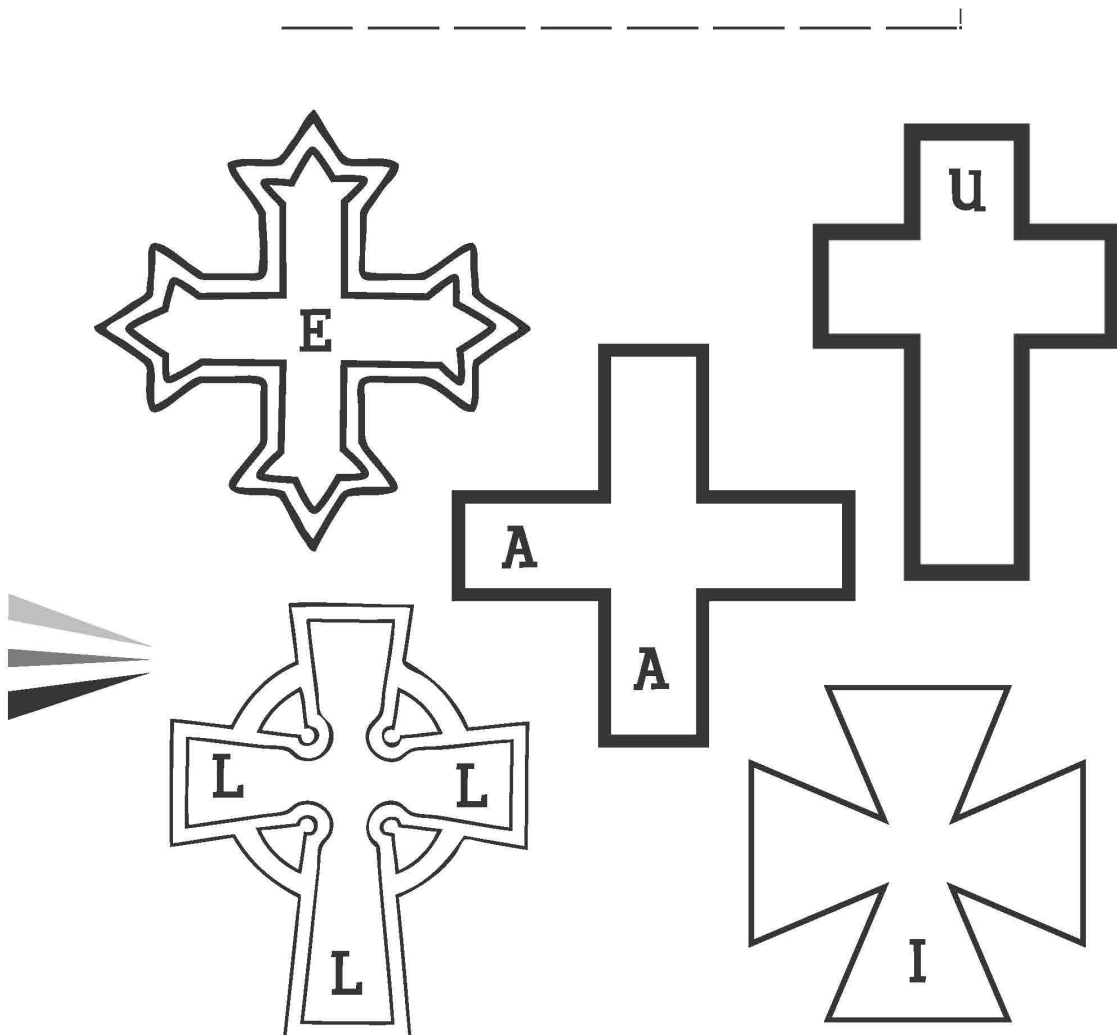

A large grid for drawing and writing, consisting of 20 columns and 20 rows of small squares. The grid is empty except for the handwritten text at the top.

- Today is the 4th Sunday in Easter.
- An important word during Easter is Alleluia.
- Alleluia means Praise God!

Coded Crosses

Crosses can come in many shapes and sizes. Which type do you see in your worship space? Color this one blue. Color in the rest of the crosses with different colors. Then, collect the letters on each cross to show an Easter word.

The Good Shepherd

As the Good Shepherd, Jesus promises to stay with us always, even when we feel lost! Help the shepherd find his three lost sheep.

Look It Up!

The book of Psalms in the Bible is a collection of songs. Psalm 23 is about Jesus, our Good Shepherd. Look up Psalm 23 and use it to complete the passage below.

"The _____ is my _____, I shall not _____.
He makes me lie down in _____;
He _____ me beside still _____;
He _____ my _____.
He leads me in _____ paths for _____ name's sake.
_____ though I walk through the _____ valley,
I _____ no _____;
For _____ are _____ me;
Your rod and your _____—
They _____ me." —Psalm 23:1-4

Help the shepherd put his flock back in order. Each sheep has a word of this week's memory verse, but the flock has moved around! Put the words from each sheep in the right order to discover the memory verse. Write each word in the blanks below.

Memory Verse

“ _____

_____” —John 10:11.

Shepherding is one of the world's oldest occupations—over 6,000 years old! Shepherds spent every hour of their day watching, tending, protecting, and grooming their sheep. In Bible times, shepherds did not always have their own homes because they traveled around with their sheep.

Did You Know?

Easter Florals

The Easter season brings spring, which means blooming flowers. Flowers brighten up any room or worship space. What kinds of flowers do you see in your worship space today? Draw them in the vases below.

What kinds of flowers do you see growing outside? Draw these flowers in the flower pots below.
