PRAYER OF THE DAY

Let us pray. Almighty God, look with loving mercy on your family, for whom our Lord Jesus Christ was willing to be betrayed, to be given over to the hands of sinners, and to suffer death on the cross; who now lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever.

Amen.

FIRST READING Isaiah 52:13–53:12

<sup>13</sup>See, my servant shall prosper; he shall be exalted and lifted up, and shall be very high. <sup>14</sup>Just as there were many who were astonished at him—so marred was his appearance, beyond human semblance, and his form beyond that of mortals—<sup>15</sup>so he shall startle many nations; kings shall shut their mouths because of him; for that which had not been told them they shall see, and that which they had not heard they shall contemplate.

<sup>53:1</sup>Who has believed what we have heard? And to whom has the arm of the Lord been revealed?

<sup>2</sup>For he grew up before him like a young plant, and like a root out of dry ground; he had no form or majesty that we should look at him, nothing in his appearance that we should desire him. <sup>3</sup>He was despised and rejected by others; a man of suffering and acquainted with infirmity; and as one from whom others hide their faces he was despised, and we held him of no account.

<sup>4</sup>Surely he has borne our infirmities and carried our diseases; yet we accounted him stricken, struck down by God, and afflicted. <sup>5</sup>But he was wounded for our transgressions, crushed for our iniquities; upon him was the punishment that made us whole, and by his bruises we are healed.

<sup>6</sup>All we like sheep have gone astray; we have all turned to our own way, and the Lord has laid on him the iniquity of us all.

<sup>7</sup>He was oppressed, and he was afflicted, yet he did not open his mouth; like a lamb that is led to the slaughter, and like a sheep that before its shearers is silent, so he did not open his mouth.

<sup>8</sup>By a perversion of justice he was taken away. Who could have imagined his future? For he was cut off from the land of the living, stricken for the transgression of my people. <sup>9</sup>They made his grave with the wicked and his tomb with the rich, although he had done no violence, and there was no deceit in his mouth.

<sup>10</sup>Yet it was the will of the Lord to crush him with pain. When you make his life an offering for sin, he shall see his offspring, and shall prolong his days; through him the will of the Lord shall prosper. <sup>11</sup>Out of his anguish he shall see light; he shall find satisfaction through his knowledge. The righteous one, my servant, shall make many righteous, and he shall bear their iniquities.

<sup>12</sup>Therefore I will allot him a portion with the great, and he shall divide the spoil with the strong; because he poured out himself to death, and was numbered with the transgressors; yet he bore the sin of many, and made intercession for the transgressors.

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

PSALM 22

The Cantor chants the light text; the Congregation joins on the bold text.

- <sup>1</sup>My God, my God, why have you for- | saken me?
Why so far from saving me, so far from the words | of my groaning?
- <sup>2</sup>My God, I cry out by day, but you | do not answer;
by night, but I | find no rest.
- <sup>3</sup>Yet you are the | Holy One,
enthroned on the prais- | es of Israel.
- <sup>4</sup>Our ancestors put their | trust in you,
they trusted, and you | rescued them.
- <sup>5</sup>They cried out to you and | were delivered;
they trusted in you and were not | put to shame.
- <sup>6</sup>But as for me, I am a worm | and not human,
scorned by all and despised | by the people.
- <sup>7</sup>All who see me laugh | me to scorn;
they curl their lips; they | shake their heads.
- <sup>8</sup>“Trust in the LORD; let the | LORD deliver;
let God rescue him if God so de- | lights in him.”
- <sup>9</sup>Yet you are the one who drew me forth | from the womb,
and kept me safe on my | mother’s breast.
- <sup>10</sup>I have been entrusted to you ever since | I was born;
you were my God when I was still in my | mother’s womb.
- <sup>11</sup>Be not far from me, for trou- | ble is near,
and there is no | one to help.
- <sup>12</sup>Many young bulls en- | circle me;
strong bulls of Ba- | shan surround me.
- <sup>13</sup>They open wide their | jaws at me,
like a slashing and | roaring lion.
- <sup>14</sup>I am poured out like water; all my bones are | out of joint;
my heart within my breast is | melting wax.
- <sup>15</sup>My strength is dried up like a potsherd; my tongue sticks to the roof | of my mouth;
and you have laid me in the | dust of death.
- <sup>16</sup>Packs of dogs close me in, a band of evildoers | circles round me;
they pierce my hands | and my feet.
- <sup>17</sup>I can count | all my bones
while they stare at | me and gloat.
- <sup>18</sup>They divide my gar- | ments among them;
for my clothing, | they cast lots.
- <sup>19</sup>But you, O LORD, be not | far away;
O my help, hasten | to my aid.
- <sup>20</sup>Deliver me | from the sword,
my life from the power | of the dog.

- <sup>21</sup>Save me from the | lion's mouth!
From the horns of wild bulls you have | rescued me.
- <sup>22</sup>I will declare your name | to my people;
in the midst of the assembly | I will praise you.
- <sup>23</sup>You who fear the LORD, give praise! All you of Jacob's | line, give glory.
Stand in awe of the LORD, all you off- | spring of Israel.
- <sup>24</sup>For the LORD does not despise nor abhor the poor in their poverty;
neither is the LORD's face hid- | den from them;
but when they cry out, | the LORD hears them.
- <sup>25</sup>From you comes my praise in the | great assembly;
I will perform my vows in the sight of those who | fear the LORD.
- <sup>26</sup>The poor shall eat | and be satisfied.
Let those who seek the LORD give praise! May your hearts | live forever!
- <sup>27</sup>All the ends of the earth shall remember and turn | to the LORD;
all the families of nations shall bow | before God.
- <sup>28</sup>For dominion belongs | to the LORD,
who rules o- | ver the nations.
- <sup>29</sup>Indeed, all who sleep in the earth shall bow | down in worship;
all who go down to the dust, though they be dead, shall kneel be- | fore the LORD.
- <sup>30</sup>Their descendants shall | serve the LORD, whom they shall proclaim to genera- | tions to come.
- <sup>31</sup>They shall proclaim God's deliverance to a people | yet unborn, saying to them, "The | LORD has acted!"

SECOND READING Hebrews 10:16–25

[After the Holy Spirit says,] <sup>16</sup>“This is the covenant that I will make with them after those days, says the Lord:

I will put my laws in their hearts,
and I will write them on their minds,”

<sup>17</sup>he also adds,

“I will remember their sins and their lawless deeds no more.”

<sup>18</sup>Where there is forgiveness of these, there is no longer any offering for sin.

<sup>19</sup>Therefore, my friends, since we have confidence to enter the sanctuary by the blood of Jesus, <sup>20</sup>by the new and living way that he opened for us through the curtain (that is, through his flesh), <sup>21</sup>and since we have a great priest over the house of God, <sup>22</sup>let us approach with a true heart in full assurance of faith, with our hearts sprinkled clean from an evil conscience and our bodies washed with pure water. <sup>23</sup>Let us hold fast to the confession of our hope without wavering, for he who has promised is faithful. <sup>24</sup>And let us consider how to provoke one another to love and good deeds, <sup>25</sup>not neglecting to meet together, as is the habit of some, but encouraging one another, and all the more as you see the Day approaching.

The reader concludes: The word of the Lord. The assembly responds: Thanks be to God.

Please stand.

HYMN ELW 337 Alas! And Did My Savior Bleed

1 A - las! And did my Sav - ior bleed, and did my sov-'reign die?
2 Was it for sins that I had done he groaned up - on the tree?
3 Well might the sun in dark - ness hide and shut its glo - ries in 4 Thus might I hide my blush - ing face while his dear cross ap - pears,
5 But tears of grief can - not re - pay the debt of love I owe;

Would he de - vote that sa - cred head for sin - ners such as I?
A - maz - ing pit - y, grace un-known, and love be - yond de - gree!
when God, the might - y mak - er, died for his own crea - tures' sin.

THE PASSION OF OUR LORD ACCORDING TO JOHN

Evangelist: The Passion of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.

Jesus went out with his disciples across the Kidron valley to a place where there was a garden, which he and his disciples entered. Now Judas, who betrayed him, also knew the place, because Jesus often met there with his disciples. So Judas brought a detachment of soldiers together with police from the chief priests and the Pharisees, and they came there with lanterns and torches and weapons. Then Jesus, knowing all that was to happen to him, came forward and asked them,

Jesus: For whom are you looking?

Congregation: Jesus of Nazareth.

Jesus: I am he.

Evangelist: Judas, who betrayed him, was standing with them. When Jesus said to them, 'I am he,' they stepped back and fell to the ground. Again, he asked them,

Jesus: Whom are you looking for?

Congregation: Jesus of Nazareth.

Jesus: I told you that I am he. So if you are looking for me, let these men go.

Evangelist: This was to fulfill the word that he had spoken, 'I did not lose a single one of those whom you gave me.' Then Simon Peter, who had a sword, drew it, struck the high priest's slave, and cut off his right ear. The slave's name was Malchus. Jesus said to Peter,

Jesus: Put your sword away. Am I not to drink the cup that the Father has given me?

Evangelist: So the soldiers, their officer, and the Jewish police arrested Jesus and bound him. First, they took him to Annas, who was the father-in-law of Caiaphas, the high priest that year. Caiaphas was the one who had advised the Temple authorities that it was better to have one person die for the people.

Evangelist: Simon Peter and another disciple followed Jesus. Since that disciple was known to the high priest, he went with Jesus into the courtyard of the high priest, but Peter was standing outside at the gate. So the other disciple, who was known to the high priest, went out, spoke to the woman who guarded the gate, and brought Peter in. The woman said to Peter,

Reader: You are not also one of this man's disciples, are you?

Evangelist: Peter replied,

Reader: I am not.

Evangelist: Now the slaves and the police had made a charcoal fire because it was cold, and they were standing round it and warming themselves. Peter also was standing with them and warming himself. Then the high priest questioned Jesus about his disciples and about his teaching. Jesus answered,

Jesus: I have spoken openly to the world; I have always taught in synagogues and in the temple, where all the people come together. I have said nothing in secret. Why do you ask me? Ask those who heard what I said to them; they know what I said.

Evangelist: When he had said this, one of the police standing nearby struck Jesus on the face, saying,

Reader: Is that how you answer the high priest?

Jesus: If I have spoken wrongly, testify to the wrong. But if I have spoken rightly, why do you strike me?

Evangelist: Then Annas sent him bound to Caiaphas the high priest. Now Simon Peter was standing and warming himself. They asked him,

Congregation: You are not also one of his disciples, are you?

Reader: I am not.

Evangelist: One of the slaves of the high priest, a relative of the man whose ear Peter had cut off, asked,

Reader: Did I not see you in the garden with him?

Evangelist: Again Peter denied it, and at that moment the cock crowed.

Then they took Jesus from Caiaphas to Pilate's headquarters. It was early in the morning. They themselves did not enter the headquarters, so as to avoid ritual defilement and to be able to eat the Passover. So Pilate went out to them and said,

Reader: What accusation do you bring against this man?

Congregation: If this man were not a criminal, we would not have handed him over to you.

Reader: Take him yourselves and judge him according to your law.

Congregation: We are not permitted to put anyone to death.

Evangelist: This was to fulfill what Jesus had said when he indicated the kind of death he was to die. Then Pilate entered the headquarters again, summoned Jesus, and asked him,

Reader: Are you the King of the Jews?

Jesus: Do you ask this on your own, or did others tell you about me?

Reader: I am not a Judean, am I? Your own nation and the chief priests have handed you over to me. What have you done?

Jesus: My kingdom is not from this world. If my kingdom were from this world, my followers would be fighting to keep me from being handed over. But as it is, my kingdom is not from here.

Reader: So you are a king?

Jesus: You say that I am a king. For this I was born, and for this I came into the world, to testify to the truth. Everyone who belongs to the truth listens to my voice.

Reader: What is truth?

Evangelist: After Pilate had said this, he went out to the crowd again and told them,

Reader: I find no case against him. But you have a custom that I release someone for you at the Passover. Do you want me to release for you the King of the Jews?

Congregation: Not this man, but Barabbas!

Evangelist: Now Barabbas was a bandit. Then Pilate took Jesus and had him flogged. And the soldiers wove a crown of thorns and put it on his head, and they dressed him in a purple robe. They kept coming up to him, saying,

Congregation: Hail, King of the Jews!

Evangelist: and striking him on the face. Pilate went out again and said to them,

Reader: Look, I am bringing him out to you to let you know that I find no case against him.

Evangelist: So Jesus came out, wearing the crown of thorns and the purple robe.

Reader: Here is the man!

Evangelist: When the chief priests and the police saw him, they shouted, Congregation: Crucify him! Crucify him!

Reader: Take him yourselves and crucify him; I find no case against him.

Congregation: We have a law, and according to that law he ought to die because he has claimed to be the Son of God.

Evangelist: Now when Pilate heard this, he was more afraid than ever. He entered his headquarters again and asked Jesus,

Reader: Where are you from?

Evangelist: But Jesus gave him no answer.

Reader: Do you refuse to speak to me? Do you not know that I have power to release you, and power to crucify you?

Jesus: You would have no power over me unless it had been given you from above; therefore the one who handed me over to you is guilty of a greater sin.

Evangelist: From then on Pilate tried to release him, but the crowd cried out,

Congregation: If you release this man, you are no friend of the emperor. Everyone who claims to be a king sets himself against the emperor.

Evangelist: When Pilate heard these words, he brought Jesus outside and sat on the judge's bench at a place called The Stone Pavement, or in Hebrew Gabbatha. Now it was the day of Preparation for the Passover; and it was about noon. Pilate said to the crowd,

Reader: Here is your King!

Congregation: Away with him! Away with him! Crucify him!

Reader: Shall I crucify your King?

Congregation: We have no king but the emperor.

Please stand.

Evangelist: Then Pilate handed Jesus over to them to be crucified. So they took Jesus; and carrying the cross by himself, he went out to what is called The Place of the Skull, which in Hebrew is called Golgotha. There they crucified him, and with him two others, one on either side, with Jesus between them. Pilate also had an inscription written and put on the cross. It read, 'Jesus of Nazareth, the King of the Jews.' Many of the people read this inscription, because the place where Jesus was crucified was near the city; and it was written in Hebrew, in Latin, and in Greek. Then the chief priests said to Pilate,

Congregation: Do not write, 'The King of the Jews', but, 'This man said, I am King of the Jews.'

Reader: What I have written I have written.

Evangelist: When the soldiers had crucified Jesus, they took his clothes and divided them into four parts, one for each soldier. They also took his tunic; now the tunic was seamless, woven in one piece from the top. So they said to one another,

Congregation: Let us not tear it, but cast lots for it to see who will get it.

Evangelist: This was to fulfill what the scripture says, 'They divided my clothes among themselves, and for my clothing they cast lots.' And that is what the soldiers did.

Meanwhile, standing near the cross of Jesus were his mother, and his mother's sister, Mary the wife of Clopas, and Mary Magdalene. When Jesus saw his mother and the disciple whom he loved standing beside her, he said to his mother,

Jesus: Woman, here is your son.

Evangelist: Then Jesus said to the disciple,

Jesus: Here is your mother.

Evangelist: And from that hour the disciple took her into his own home.

Evangelist: After this, when Jesus knew that all was now finished, he said (in order to fulfill the scripture),

Jesus: I am thirsty.

Evangelist: A jar full of sour wine was standing there. So they put a sponge full of the wine on a branch of hyssop and held it to his mouth. When Jesus had received the wine, he said,

Jesus: It is finished.

Evangelist: Then he bowed his head and gave up his spirit.

Please kneel for silent pray. Rise when directed.

Since it was the day of Preparation, the Temple leaders did not want the bodies left on the cross during the Sabbath, especially because that Sabbath was a day of great solemnity. So they asked Pilate to have the legs of the crucified men broken and the bodies removed. Then the soldiers came and broke the legs of the first and of the other who had been crucified with him. But when they came to Jesus and saw that he was already dead, they did not break his legs. Instead, one of the soldiers pierced his side with a spear, and at once blood and water came out. (He who saw this has testified so that you also may believe. His testimony is true, and he knows that he tells the truth.) These things occurred so that the scripture might be fulfilled, 'None of his bones shall be broken.' And again another passage of scripture says, 'They will look on the one whom they have pierced.'

After these things, Joseph of Arimathea, who was a disciple of Jesus, though a secret one because of his fear of the Temple authorities, asked Pilate to let him take away the body of Jesus. Pilate gave him permission; so he came and removed his body. Nicodemus, who had at first come to Jesus by night, also came, bringing a mixture of myrrh and aloes, weighing about a hundred pounds. They took the body of Jesus and wrapped it with the spices in linen cloths, according to the burial custom of the Jewish people. Now there was a garden in the place where he was crucified, and in the garden there was a new tomb in which no one had ever been laid. And so, because it was the day of Preparation, and the tomb was nearby, they laid Jesus there.

This is the Passion of Our Lord.

BIDDING PRAYER

Let us pray for the holy church throughout the world.

Almighty and eternal God, you have shown your glory to all nations in Jesus Christ. By your Holy Spirit guide the church and gather it throughout the world. Help it to persevere in faith, proclaim your name, and bring the good news of salvation in Christ to all people. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Let us pray for those preparing for baptism.

Almighty and eternal God, you bless the church. Increase the faith and understanding of those preparing for baptism. Give them new birth as your children, and keep them in the faith and communion of your holy church. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Let us pray for those who share our faith in Jesus Christ.

Almighty and eternal God, you give your church unity. Look with favor on all who follow Jesus your Son. Make all the baptized one in the fullness of faith, and keep us united in the fellowship of love. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Let us pray for those who do not share our faith in Jesus Christ.

Almighty and eternal God, gather into your embrace all those who call out to you under different names. Bring an end to inter-religious strife, and make us more faithful witnesses of the love made known to us in your Son. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Let us pray for those who do not believe in God.

Almighty and eternal God, you created humanity so that all may long to know you and find peace in you. Grant that all may recognize the signs of your love and grace in the world and in the lives of Christians, and gladly acknowledge you as the one true God. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Let us pray for God's creation.

Almighty and eternal God, you are the creator of a magnificent universe. Hold the world in your care and bring all things to fulfillment in you. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Let us pray for those who serve in public office.

Almighty and eternal God, you are the champion of the poor and oppressed. In your goodness, give wisdom to those in authority, so that all people may enjoy justice, peace, freedom, and a share in the goodness of your creation. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Let us pray for those in need.

Almighty and eternal God, you give strength to the weary and new courage to those who have lost heart. Heal the sick, comfort the dying, give safety to travelers, free those unjustly deprived of liberty, and deliver your world from falsehood, hunger, and disease. Hear the prayers of all who call on you in any trouble, that they may have the joy of receiving your help in their need. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Please kneel or be seated.

SOLEMN REPROACHES

Refrain

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly God, ho - ly and might - y, ho - ly and im - mor - tal, have mer - cy on us.

O my people, O my church, what I have I done to you? How have I offended you? Answer me.
I led you out of slavery into freedom, and delivered you through the waters of rebirth, but you have a prepared a cross for your Savior. Refrain

O my people, O my church, what more could I have done for you? Answer me.
Forty years I led you through the desert, feeding you with manna on the way;
I saved you from the time of trial, and gave you my body, the bread of heaven;
but you have prepared a cross for your Savior. Refrain

O my people, O my church, what more could I have done for you? Answer me.
I struck down your enemies, but you struck my head with a reed;
I gave you my peace, but you draw the sword in my name and you have prepared a cross for your Savior. Refrain

O my people, O my church, what more could I have done for you? Answer me.
I lifted you to the heights, but you lifted me high on a cross,
I raised you from death and prepared for you the tree of life
I grafted you into my people Israel, but you made them scapegoats for you own guilt,
and you have prepared a cross for your Savior. Refrain

O my people, O my church, what more could I have done for you? Answer me.
I came to you in the least of your brothers and sisters, but I was hungry and you gave me no food, thirsty and you gave me no drink, a stranger and you did not welcome me, naked and you did not clothe me, sick and in prison and you did not visit me, and you have prepared a cross for your Savior. Refrain
