Praise the Lord!
Praise God in his sanctuary;
praise him in his mighty firmament!
Let everything that breathes praise the Lord!
Praise the Lord!

—Psalm 150:1, 6

Music Sundays
June 2nd

Soli Deo Gloria

On June 2nd the choir season ends as we worship God and celebrate God’s gift of music and the work of faithful musician-servants during the year. As we say goodbye to our choirs until the fall, we give thanks for their gifts of time, talent, and service—to the glory of God.

Fellowship
Lemonade Summer Sundays

Beginning on June 9 we will gather in the narthex after the 10:30 service for lemonade, ice tea and healthy snacks. Volunteers are needed to coordinate this social hour. Please sign up for a Sunday on the bulletin board in the entrance way. The drinks, cups and carrots are provided by the church. Other snacks would be welcome. Questions? Please see Penny Barth.

The group “without a name” meets once a month at the homes of members of St. John’s. It is an evening filled with great food and conversation. Couples should bring a main dish plus an appetizer, salad or dessert. Singles should bring either an appetizer, main dish, salad or dessert. Open to all adult members and friends of the congregation.

Kick off the first day of Summer and the last Sine Nomine of the season on Friday June 21st at 7:00 p.m. at the home of Jane & Jama Bowman. Look for a sign up sheet in the hallway.

Food Banks Face Summer Challenge!

Summer is right around the corner, and while many of us are planning summer vacations and looking forward to sumptuous BBQs with friends and family, others are dreading the summer months.

For financially struggling families, with children in schools that offer free or reduced-cost meals, summer break means having to provide for additional meals. Luckily, these families can find support at local food banks like Loaves & Fishes and the Community Food Bank of NJ. However, this time of increased demand is especially challenging to food banks as it coincides with a period of reduced donations. Regular food bank donors are on holiday or simply too busy during the summer.

Social Ministries therefore asks you to continue giving throughout the summer and even consider an extra gift that will make this summer a good one for everyone.

Thank you,
Hans Calis

Congratulations to all the graduates of our congregation. If anyone has been missed, please send any additions or corrections to crothman@stjohnssummit.org and it will be included in the next edition of The Eagle.

- Christopher Forrest, has been promoted to Lt. Col. (in the Air Force). He’s an A-10 pilot and is currently deployed in Afghanistan
- Allison Kurlak is graduating from Chatham High School and will be attending the University of Michigan.
- Kimberly Marotta is graduating from Madison High School in June 2013 to attend Rowan University in the fall to study music education
- Katie Sharpe completed her Masters of Social Work at Rutgers University
Lewis delves into moral questions about good vs. evil, temptation, repentance and grace. Through this wonderful tale, the reader emerges with a better understanding of what it means to live a faithful life.

Last Monday of the Month Movie Nights

Join us this summer at the movies! The last Monday of June, July, and August we will be gathering to watch a film on the big screen as we transform Hinman Hall into St. John’s Cinema. We will have theater snacks, fellowship, post-film discussion and of course each night’s screening. Showings begin at 7:30 p.m.

June 24th The Intouchables

“A rich quadriplegic, living in a mansion in Paris, requires a live-in caregiver. A young, African offender turns up for an interview, but he is not really looking to get the job. However, to his surprise, he is hired. The two men then develop a close friendship.”

August 26th TBA

Pastor’s notes!

What a wonderful Pentecost we had at St. John’s! The music of bells, brass and singers was glorious; we heard of God’s deeds of power in the tongues of several nations; we were awed by the beautiful liturgical dance of the Genie Dance Company from Harlem; and nine of our young people who were so brilliantly catechized by our vicar, were confirmed. God did indeed send forth the Holy Spirit and we were recreated and renewed in resurrection hope!

Now we enter the long, green season after Pentecost, the season of growth. And we pray that our growth will take place in many ways. As always, our spirits will be nurtured in worship, so come with your families and friends to our weekly feast shared in both Word and Sacrament.

We look forward to growing communally through our revamped fellowship time. I hope you’ll make a commitment to staying after the 10:30 service to meet and greet one another, especially those whom you may not know.

Interested in deepening your roots in Christ? Then come to our adult book studies, movie nights and Vacation Bible School; and be sure to invite your friends too.

Our growth in serving Christ continues both at home and away. Read on to learn more about our various social ministry opportunities and our amazing Appalachian Service Project. This year we are sending our largest group ever as 29 teenagers and adults go to Tazewell, VA to serve our brothers and sisters living in poverty. As we go, please pray that we develop the same spiritual insight that St. Francis of Assisi had when he prayed, “It is in giving that we receive.”

With so many things to look forward to, we invite you to come and grow with us at St. John’s this summer!

Yours in Christ,
Pastor Gladys G. Moore

Summer Adult Education and Fellowship Opportunities

Summer Book Club

During the summer months we will be having a monthly gathering for dinner and book discussion. We will gather the third Wednesdays of June, July and August to discuss each month’s book. Books will be available in the church office and readers are asked to read the book before each month’s gathering. All are welcome to join us for dinner, discussion and fellowship for any or all of the books. Dinner begins at 6:30 with discussion starting at 7:00 p.m.

June 19th Silence by Shusaku Endo “Considered controversial ever since its first publication, it tackles the thorniest religious issues of belief and faith head on. A novel of historical fiction, it is the story of a Jesuit missionary sent to seventeenth century Japan, who endured persecution and struggled with issues of martyrdom.”

July 17th Go Tell It on the Mountain by James Baldwin “Semi-autobiographical novel by James Baldwin, published in 1953. Based on the author’s experiences as a teenaged preacher in a small revivialist church, the novel describes two days and a long night in the life of an African-American family. It is a classic of contemporary African-American literature. Baldwin's description of descent into the depths of one character’s young soul was hailed as brilliant, as was his exploration of another character’s complex sorrows.”

August 21st Screwtape Letters by C. S. Lewis “In this humorous and perceptive exchange between two demons, C. S. Lewis delves into moral questions about good vs. evil, temptation, repentance and grace. Through this wonderful tale, the reader emerges with a better understanding of what it means to live a faithful life.”

June 24th The Intouchables (2011) “A rich quadriplegic, living in a mansion in Paris, requires a live-in caregiver. A young, African offender turns up for an interview, but he is not really looking to get the job. However, to his surprise, he is hired. The two men then develop a close friendship.”

July 29th Chocolat (2000) “Vianne Rocher and her young daughter are drifters who are met with skepticism and resistance when they move to a conservative town in rural France and open a chocolate shop during Lent. When a group of river drifters visit the town, Vianne teaches the townspeople something about acceptance, and finds love for herself along the way.”

August 26th TBA
R & R. What does it mean to you? For many, it means “rest and relaxation” or “rest and recreation” or even “rest and recuperation.” I’d like to suggest some new ones for this summer: “rediscovery and renewal” and “read and ring.” Summer can be a good time to explore new things and to rediscover old favorites. This summer, several exciting music opportunities await you:

For music readers:
Rediscover and renew your music-reading skills with the one-week Summer Bell Choir I and Summer Bell Choir II. Each choir will rehearse at 7:45 pm on Wednesday evening, and then ring the following Sunday. The tentative Sundays are July 14th and August 11th. Other weeks are also possible. Rekindle your love of performing music and explore the wonderful world of handbell ringing in short one-week commitments. A minimum of 7 music-readers are needed.

For youth and adult music-reading beginners:
Come learn how to read music and ring simple handbell music! In July and August, two 2–3-week workshops will be offered at 12:00 PM. If 7 or more people participate and are interested, these groups might play a prelude piece at the end of each workshop. Watch the bulletin announcements for more details.

For experienced handbell ringers:
Intrepid ringers can explore the heavenly realm of handbell quartets, duets, and solo ringing, and in the process stretch your music-making skills. Schedule TBD. See me for more information.

A sign-up sheet for all of these opportunities is posted in the entry foyer at church. You can also sign-up by emailing me at musicdirector@stjohnssummit.org or at my home email address.

I hope you’ll consider these short-term opportunities to try something new and rediscover the joy of making music!

Organist’s Notes

From the Director of Music:

Calling All Musicians
If you love to sing or play an instrument but don’t have the time to commit to weekly rehearsals over the year, then have no fear, this summer is your chance to share your musical gifts with us. We are still looking for members who would like to share their musical offerings with us this summer. All voices and instruments are encouraged to signup. To signup for a Sunday please speak to or email Ken Bryson at musicdirector@stjohnssummit.org.

Summer Music Liturgy
Now the Feast and Celebration is BACK! It has been a couple years, but the liturgical setting Now the Feast and Celebration by Marty Haugen makes its return this summer starting on June 9th at the 10:30 services. Now the Feast and Celebration was commissioned by the Campus Ministry Department of Pacific Lutheran University in Tacoma, Washington. NTFAC is based off the Lutheran Communion Service and featuring contemporary music and inclusive language throughout.

Piano Replacement
We have started the process of looking to replace the piano in the choir room. While the piano is a Steinway baby grand from the 1920’s and regarded as a very fine era of Steinway production, we are essentially buying time right now with some necessary band-aids to keep it working. After careful consideration and research we feel that replacing it altogether is the best route to go. If we were to have the current piano rebuilt it would cost between $20-30,000 with no guarantee to its end sound.

Therefore we are opening this plan for replacement up to the congregation of St. John’s with the hopes of receiving donations towards a purchase. We anticipate the purchase could cost between $10-15,000. If you would be interested in making a donation please speak or email Ken Bryson directly at musicdirector@stjohnssummit.org.

Special Music

Coming on June 2nd: Mystery works on the mighty Holtkamp organ composed by the great German organist, cantor and composer, J. S. Bach (1685–1750), and by Louis Vierne (1870–1937), a renowned French organist and composer. (For history buffs: On June 2nd, 1937, Vierne passed away while playing an organ concert for 3,000 people at the Cathedral of Notre Dame in Paris.) Special thanks to my brave page turners!

Coming this summer: Special music for piano—some classical, some contemporary, some jazz, some gospel, and more. The Kawai will take the lead in worship at 10:30 a.m. starting June 9th and continuing through September 1st.
A special thanks to all the wonderful members of St. John’s whose musical and artistic offerings have continued to lift up the spirit and life of this church over the past year.

Liberian-born Precious Kwia, who has coordinated the “Christmas in Liberia” program for the past several years, will visit us on Sunday June 9th for both a Temple Talk and a personal expression of thanks before and after the 10:30 service. We invite you all to meet this remarkable woman, who escaped the desperate conditions in her home country, settled through Habitat for Humanity in Newark, and who is now sharing the American bounties with the Liberian people who are still so much in need. With all the hardship she has had to endure, Precious never stopped believing that God would help her, and through her, would help the children in Liberia. St. John’s has actively participated with Precious’ goal and plans on sending another shipment of two or three of the now familiar 55 Gallon blue drums in the first week of July. We plan on repeating this task for Christmas 2013 as well.

For Christmas 2012, St. John’s collected enough new and used clothing as well as school supplies and select food items to fill three barrels. Those barrels were shipped last fall, but due to hurricane Sandy, arrived in Liberia shortly after Christmas. The late arrival of the barrels didn’t diminish the joy of the children, and Precious will tell us all about that.

One of the barrels is conspicuously present in the Narthex to remind the congregation that we are accepting the following items between now and the end of June (please see the sign on the barrel for more details):

- New or gently-used clothing for children of all ages, including:
  - Summer clothes (no long sleeves, long pants ok)
  - Socks and underwear (NEW ONLY)
  - Sneakers, flip-flops/sandals/dress shoes (no spike heels)

School supplies:
- Pens/pencils/erasers/sharpeners/crayons
- Calculators (solar-powered)
- Composition notebooks (both hard-bound for younger students and multi-subject spiral-bound for older students)

Toiletries:
- Toothbrushes & toothpaste
- (bar) Soaps

“Spring cleaning” is a great time to assess whether your children’s clothing from last summer will be used this summer: Please donate the discards! If you stumble upon a clearance sale of any of the aforementioned items, please contribute to this collection!

Reach out to Hans Calis if you have any questions.

The Social Ministries Committee
Excitement is building at St. John’s! In one month, 8 adults and 21 youth will be traveling to Tazewell County, Virginia in Appalachia to repair houses for Appalachia Service Project (ASP). St. John’s has been sending work crews to ASP for 14 years. In the past, the majority of this huge undertaking has been funded through the Youth Missions Auction which is held every two years (plus or minus). Because our auction was just over a year ago, and the Youth Missions Fund was somewhat depleted from the 2012 ELCA Youth Gathering (20 participants) and ASP 2012 (21 participants), we decided to try something new to help boost the youth missions balance and support this year’s activity.

Thank you to all the planners, kitchen help, servers, entertainers, and manual laborers who helped make St. John’s first ever Youth Missions Fish Fry and Sponsorship Event a fabulous success! Jama and Jane Bowman tackled the food preparations and dining decorations, while I organized the sponsorship and entertainment portion of the fundraiser. Through Pastor Gladys Moore, St. John’s has realized a new talent—the St. John’s Wild and Crazy Kazoo Chorus! The kazoo players did a rousing rendition of A Mighty Fortress as well as a couple American favorites, closing with When the Saints Go Marching In. Look for a future performance coming this summer!

Perhaps our greatest thanks should go out to all the people who attended this fun evening. As many of you know, it doesn’t take much to make me emotional, but I was touched many times during the evening. I was touched by families who took a “leap of faith” and sponsored our van rentals. I was touched by three children who studied the sponsorship boards and carefully picked tags which they then fulfilled with money they had earned themselves. I was touched by the sheer number of items taken off the sponsorship boards by everyone who attended, totaling over $7200 as of this writing. Thank you! Thank you, St. John’s for your continued support of our youth’s involvement in Appalachia Service Project. We couldn’t do it without you!

For those of you who may have missed our Youth Missions Fish Fry and Sponsorship Event, it is never too late to make a donation. Any surplus of funds will be held over for the next year’s ASP and/or the 2015 ELCA Youth Gathering.

What is an ASP stock sale? Church members, family, and friends may purchase shares of stock in ASP. Proceeds from the stock sale will be used for ASP expenses.

Dates: 3 Sundays -- June 2, June 9, and June 16, 2013
Times: 8:45 - 10:30 a.m. (between the services)
       11:45 - 12:15 p.m. (after 10:30 service)
Place: St. John’s Narthex
Cost of Stock: $5 and up
Stockholder benefits: Stockholders will get a stock certificate for their investment in the ASP experience. Dividends will include a small gift given at the time of stock purchase. All stockholders will receive postcards from Tazewell County, Virginia, written by our youth participants describing the area and/or experience. When the participants present their ASP experience at an Adult Forum in the fall, stockholders will receive a special invitation to attend, and they will be recognized as guests of honor. This is an excellent way to connect the congregation to our youth and involve people who can’t attend the trip by letting them see and hear first-hand about the work done!

Yours in Christ,
Laura Snyder, ASP Coordinator

Food Collection to Continue at the Offering

As a way of continuing to draw connections between Sunday worship and our work in the world, to unite our stewardship with mission, and to afford a more robust time of offering, the Social Ministry Committee has asked that we continue our practice begun during Lent of collecting food donations for the local food pantry, Loaves and Fishes, each week during the offering. Please give generously. Let this be a spiritual discipline that every week we make offering of our time, our talents, our possessions—all that we have is a gift from God and all that we have should be used in service to the world.

Thank you to those who came out last month for property day: Chris Black, Jonette Boyd, Hans Calis, Linda Clark, Donna Garzinsky, Andrew Larsen, Lee Ann Miller, Mark Nedde, Kathy Redling, Virginia and Thomas Reiner, Carolyn, Craig, Courtney and Stephanie Rothman and Blake Scalet. A few of the projects that were completed include finishing the termite damage on the doorway in the narthex, replacing the ceiling in Pastor Moore’s office, painting the kitchen wall behind the dishwasher, clearing the gutters, cleaning all the pews and the pencil racks, washing windows, pruning and weeding of many of the plants, and a thorough cleaning of the kitchen.

Several jobs weren’t able to be completed due to time constraints. Please keep in mind that more hands mean more projects can be completed so please join us for Spring Property Day. Help care for the building that serves many people so well.

Submissions for the July/August edition of The Eagle must be in to the church office by June 15, 2013. There will only be one issue sent out in July for July and August.
